MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Second Spouse Amendment to CIA Retirement Act

1. In an effort to keep pace with the so-called "second spouse" amendments to the Retirement Act (pending before the Congress in S. 437), parallel amendments for CIARD were prepared by OLC on 17 November 1970 and coordinated with OGC and DDS (Attachment A).

2. The amendments were found in order, but the DDS indicated that he did not want them pushed if it would delay progress of our omnibus amendments (S. 4571).

3. In view of the imminent passage of the Civil Service amendments by the House 7 December, the situation was again reviewed within OLC and the decision was made not to push the second spouse amendments since they had not yet passed and since the omnibus amendments are to be acted upon in executive session by the Senate Armed Services Committee on 8 December and incorporation of new material at this time most likely would be rejected by Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff, Senate Armed Services Committee, and could upset favorable consideration of our proposed omnibus amendments on 8 December.

4. Statistical Information

---The so-called second spouse amendments also eliminate the dependency requirement for a spouse to receive an annuity based on death-in-service of a female employee. [REDACTED] in the Retirement Branch of the Office of Personnel informed me that there had been five female deaths-in-service cases to date. In no case was there a surviving spouse.)

---The amendments also permit designation of a surviving spouse by an unmarried participant who marries following retirement. (Per Benthall, one case to his knowledge.)

---Information on predeceased spouses is necessarily fragmentary as the fact becomes relevant only after a participant who elected a survivor annuity dies.

Remarks:

Attached for your review and comment are draft amendments to the CIA Retirement Act based upon the so-called second spouse amendments to the Civil Service system, approved by the Senate and favorably reported, amended, by the House Committee. The other applicable concept in the Civil Service package is the deletion of dependency requirements for a widower in death-in-service cases.

Your review at this time will give us a leg up if the Civil Service amendments are approved and if it is determined that we should seek similar amendments and are given an opportunity to incorporate them in the retirement package now on the Hill.

As an aid in review we are also forwarding changes in CIA statute through proposed amendments and the Civil Service language as passed by the Senate.

Please let us know if you do not have the copies of the Senate and House reports (91-1092 and 91-1469) on hand.
